Infuriated Man Holds Woman on Railroad Track Till Train Kills Them Both.

PLEADINGS OF NO AVAIL

A. R. Hemphill Remained Away From Home at Carbondale and Resented Appeals to Return.

REPURLIC SPECIAL Carbondale, Iil., Dec. 31.—Pinioned between the ralls in front of an Illinois Centrail train approaching at a speed of fifty miles an hour, Mrs. A. R. Hemphill of I'm Soto met a fearful death to-day as a result of her husband's frenzy. Powerless to escape, the woman was Large Increases Being Made to Shipments.

The Roberts, Johnson & Rand Shoe Co. of St. Lauis report a very large increase in shipments for December. As compared with last December they show a gain in actual shipments of $10,001.74, their shipments for December averaging $30,000 daily. The progress being made by some of the big St. Louis shoe houses certainly indicates that their product is growing wenderfully in popular favor.

Silverware and Clothing, Valued at $200, Taken From the Reverend J. Foeschle's Resi dence..

The residence of the Reverend J. Foeschle, pastor of Salem M. E. Church, No. 917 North Pifteenth street, was robbed early yesterday morning. From the amount of articles taken, it is believed by the police that two or more men were interested in the case, as the load was too much for one man.

The Reverend Mr. Poeschle says that he believes that the burgiary was committed some time between 1:30 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning, although he did not discover the theft until he arose.

The articles taken were: One dozen large rilver spoons, half a dozen small spoons, one and one-half dozen knives. one and one-half dozen forks, all silver and stamped "Rogers"; one silver salt cellar, one dozen doylies of very fine make, four linen tablecloths, one dozen napkins

TO RETURN WITH ALLEGED BIGAMIST

Detective Tracy Goes to Oklahoma After J. B. McLendon, in Whom Atlanta Police May Be Interested.

Detective James Tracy departed last night for Oklahoma City, Ok., to bring J. R. McLendon to St. Louis to answer a charge of bigamy. If information in the possession of the police proves true, the Atlanta, Ga., po tee may be more interested in McLendon's arrest than anyone else. In a letter to Chief of Police Kiely written September 12, 1904, J. C. McLendon of Lucerne. Ala., requests that his brother be located. He states that his brother left a wife and two children there. It was also stated that McLendon and woman disappeared at the same tim from Atlanta, Ga., and that the woman's husband had mysteriously died.

The police ascertained that McLendon had worked for Hale's Fire Fighters at the World's Fair, and there becam quainted with hiss Emma Peters whom he was married on December Justice Carroll.

whom he was married on December 15 by Justice Carroll.

Soon after their marriage she learned that he had been married before, and McLendon disappeared. He was traced to Okinhoma City, and Chief Kiely was notified yesterday afternoon that McLendon had been arrested there.

M. Peterson, a wig maker, of No. 32 North Broadway, sister of Emma Peterson, filed the complaint and put up the money necessary to defray the expense of bringing McLendon back to St. Louis.

As no warrant had been issued previously, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dalton was requested last night to issue it. He had told the police that he would issue the warrant as soon as McLendon was under arrest.

The police are also informed that Mc-Lendon's first wife was Mabel Champion to whom he was married in Crenshaw
